

Spring & Fall 2025

Join us on a magical journey to see the wonders of the world

Dear Readers,

As a life-long children's books aficionado who lists reading the entire children's and young adult sections of the Patrick Henry Library in Summer 1998 as one of her proudest achievements, I know the indelible impact books have on the heart, imagination and growing mind. As a mom, I'm excited to translate what we do on Watkins' adult list (socio-emotional learning, wellbeing, folklore and fostering important cultural conversations) into beautiful books that open young readers' eyes to their incredible potential.

Our imprint is very lucky to be drawing on the talent, initiative and keen eye of its creative team, Commissioning Editors Brittany Willis and Gemma Creffield, Head of Design Karen Smith and Junior Marketing Executive Hayley Moss. While we will continue to distribute our books in the UK, we are delighted to partner with Penguin Random House to distribute our books in the United States, Canada and everywhere else globally.

I hope you find the perfect book to enchant and inspire your young reader(s) in these pages showcasing the first seven books Moon + Bird are publishing. In Spring 2025, you'll meet 40 softly spoken superheroes with QUIET RIOT by Nadia Finer and Holly Farndell, explore 10 different eco-systems in HOW TO BE AN ECO EXPLORER with Zoologist & Wildlife Presenter Yussef Rafik and Holly Astle, and learn about the eight Pagan festivals in THE MAGICAL WHEEL OF THE YEAR by Bérengère Demoncy and Victoria Ruiz y Lopez.

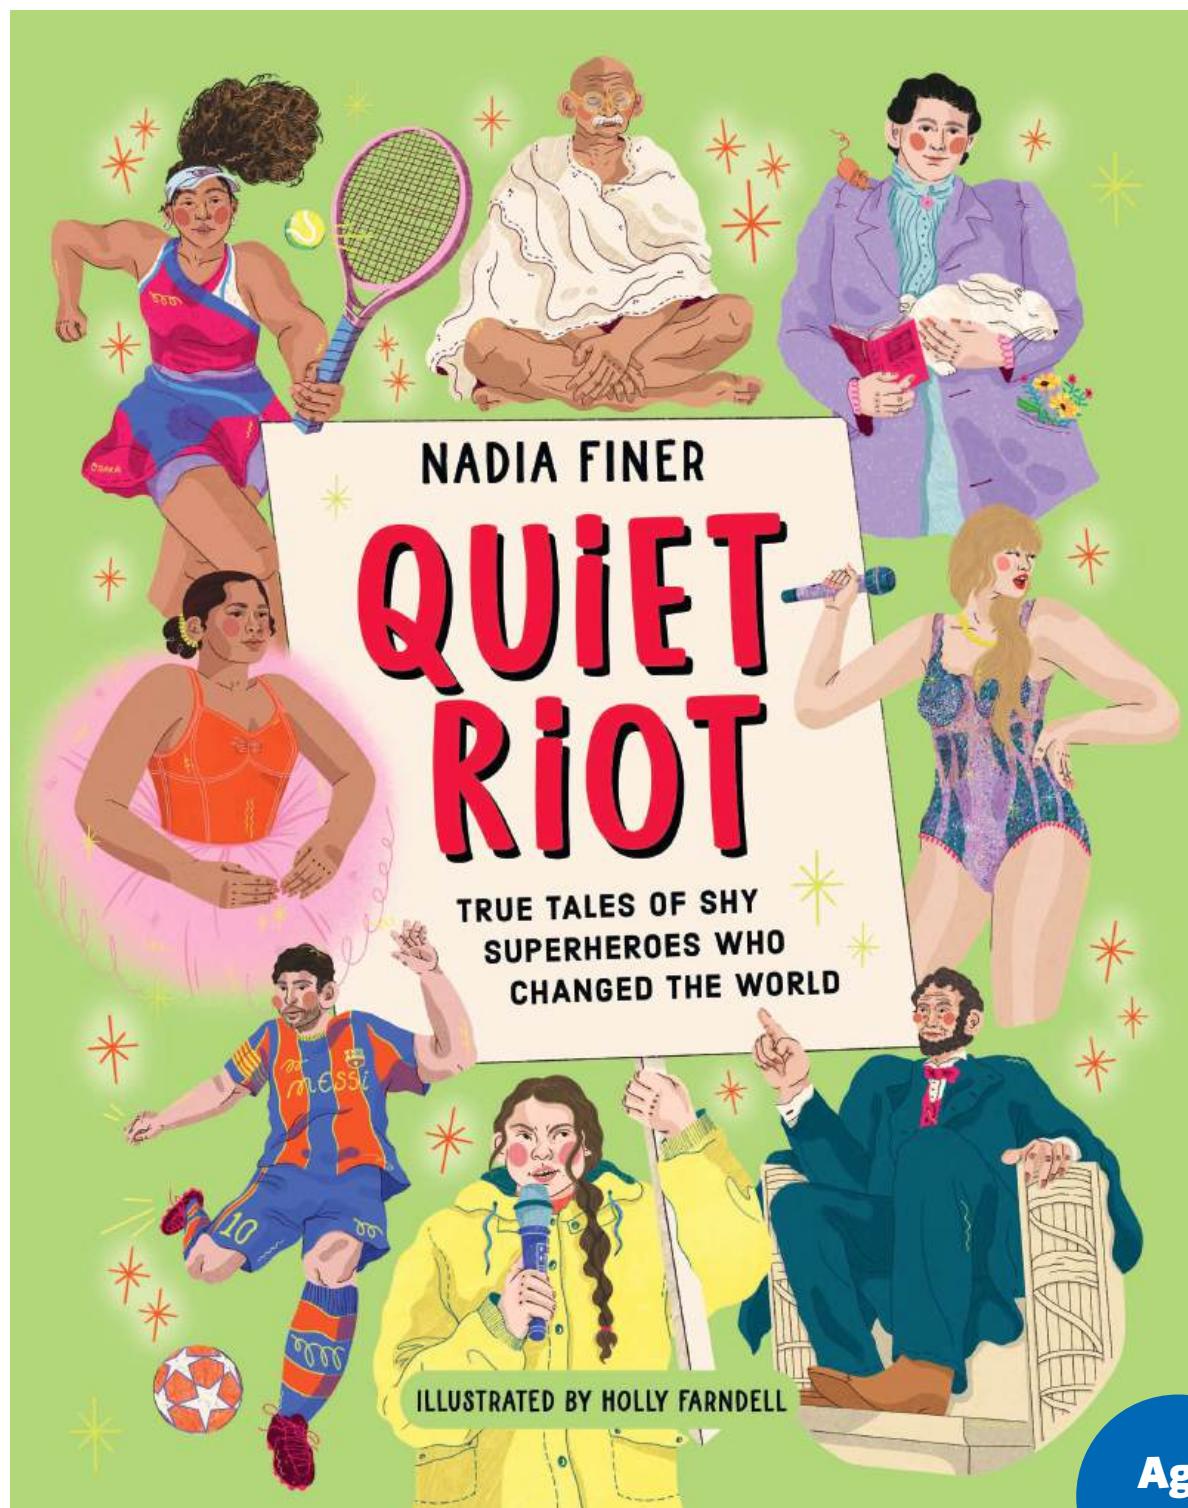

In Fall 2025, you'll learn to be a magical guardian of nature in Claire Barker's HETTIE NETTLE'S HANDBOOK FOR HEDGEWITCHES and follow a young girl's experience of sensory overload in MAKE IT ALL GO AWAY by Helen Docherty and Taylor Barron. You'll be introduced to the election process in a fun and innovative way in Davide Cali and Magali Clavelet's VOTE WOLF and follow an introverted child's journey to (reluctantly) make new friends in Marco Anderson and Erica Salcedo's THIS BOOK IS ABOUT NOTHING.

Enjoy!

Quiet Riot

True Tales of Shy Superheroes Who Changed the World

By Nadia Finer

Illustrated by Holly Farndell

Why is it, when we see people achieving incredible things, that they all seem so outgoing? Where are all the softly spoken leaders, artists, innovators and champions?

In this book you will find 40 extraordinary stories of shy and mighty magnificence to show you that softly spoken people are trailblazers too. Sometimes we are just a bit more quiet about it!

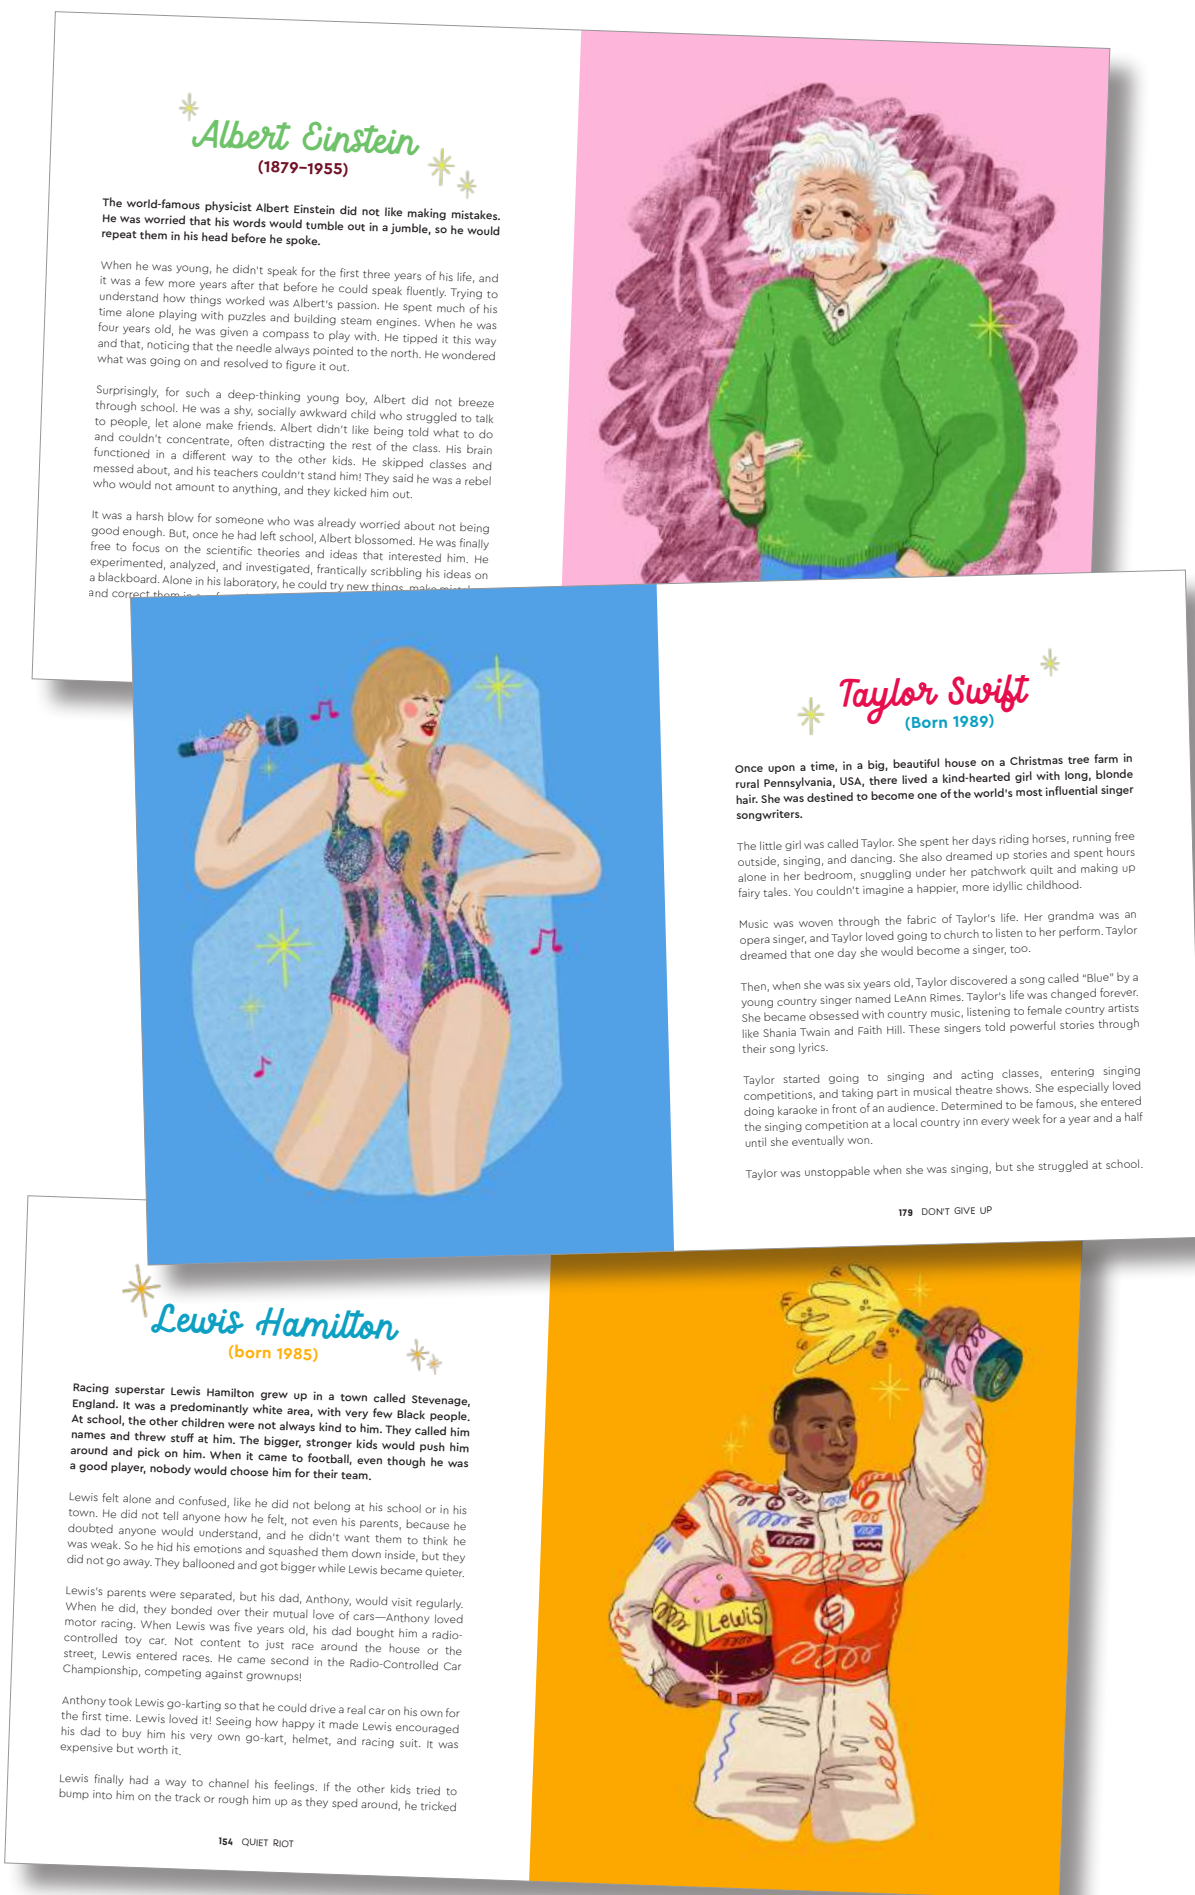

Quiet Riot shares the triumphs and successes of shy people from all over the world and all kinds of backgrounds, including athletes, writers, explorers, inventors, artists, singers and activists. From Ghandi to Taylor Swift, this book aims to help shy children aged 7 and up speak up, stand up for their beliefs and follow their dreams.

"The world needs quiet people. Our voices matter. Look what happens when we step out of the shadows. We shine!"

– Nadia Finer

"Growing up shy, I would've loved to hear stories about people using their quietness as a strength and going on to achieve their wildest dreams."

How to be an Eco Explorer

Fun Activities for Exploring Nature and Saving the Planet

By Yussef Rafik

Illustrated by Holly Astle

Are you ready to go on an eco-adventure?

You don't need a big garden or fancy equipment to bring about positive changes – all you need is the spirit of an eco explorer, curiosity, respect for nature and a desire to do good.

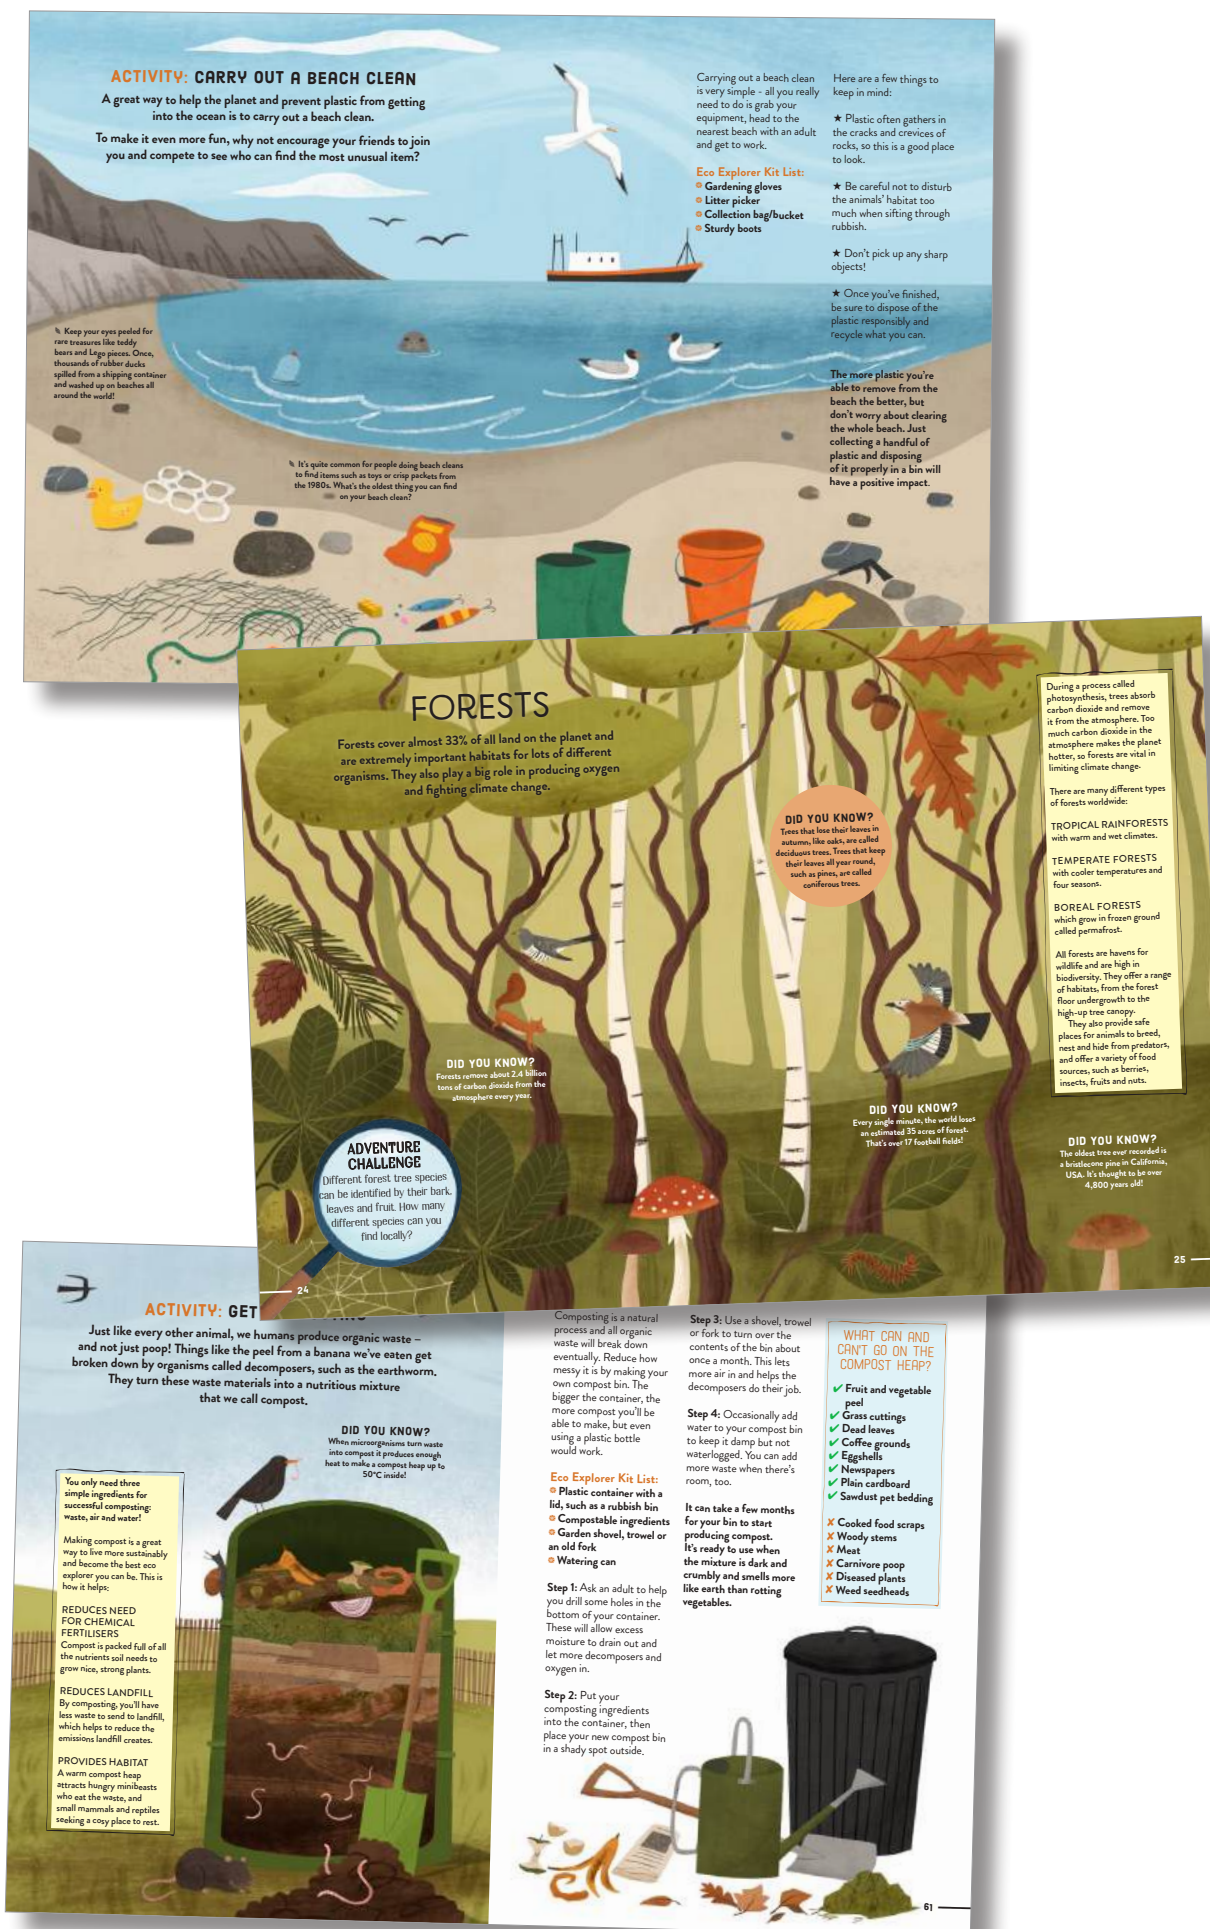

Explore 10 important ecosystems – from rainforests to deserts and grasslands to coasts – learning fascinating nature facts and doing planet-saving activities. Meet habitat heroes such as pond snails and cellar spiders, and learn how to make your own rainwater harvester or bathyscope for spying critters underwater!

This is the perfect book for young people aged 7–10 feeling anxious about the environment who want to get outside, have fun and learn about the world around them.

"Our natural world is a wonderfully fascinating place, so I hope this book helps to inspire young readers to love it and to want to protect it."

– Yussef Rafik

"Regrowing our relationship with nature is the most nurturing thing we can do for the world around us. The eco-explorers of today are helping us create a better vision for all life on this planet."

The Magical Wheel of the Year

A Tale of the Pagan Festivals with Activities & Rituals

By Bérengère Demoncey and Victoria Ruiz y Lopez

Join sisters Selene and Gaia on a magical journey through the Wheel of the Year from Samhain to Beltane.

With a pinch of magic and stunning full-page illustrations, this story will introduce young children aged 6–9 to the 8 seasonal festivals of the Pagan year, getting them excited about nature, animals and celebrations. Follow the sisters through the changing year as they meet a parade of wonderful animals, discover beautiful plants, eat delicious festival food and take part in exciting traditional activities.

After following Selene and Gaia's journey, there are 40 easy-to-do, fun activities and rituals to help families celebrate each event on the wheel, as well as factual information about each event. This book is the perfect way to teach children about Pagan faiths and to help them discover the magic of the seasons.

"When we looked for a children's book on how to live in tune with nature and create rituals to celebrate these moments, we couldn't find one to read to our own kids. So we decided to create our own!"

– Bérengère Demoncey & Victoria Ruiz y Lopez

Hettie Nettle's Handbook for Hedgewitches

Written and illustrated by Claire Barker

Discover Hettie Nettle's secret notebook about the Wild Wood in this fictional guide to becoming a hedgewitch – a magical guardian of nature.

Filled with enchanting watercolor illustrations of the amazing things Hettie finds and the magical beings she encounters, this stunning book reveals:

- Each month's Whisper Name, such as "The Dreaming" for January.
- Celebrity interviews with local creatures, from faeries and Jack Frost to the Moon and the Wind.
- The seasonal celebrations of the Wheel of the Year, like the wedding of Jack-in-the-Green at Beltane.
- The Spell of the Month: create an ointment to see faeries, make a wish with a dandelion clock charm and create a Beltane blessing with a May Day garland.
- A monthly seasonal tale from Flittermouse, such as the "Hare and the Moon" (March) or "The Unlucky Hedgehog" (January).

"I wanted to write a book that had a fresh breeze of magic blowing through it. I hope children - or indeed anyone who has ever wished on a dandelion clock - will love it."

Vote Wolf

By Davide Cali

Illustrated by Magali Clavelet

With a fresh take on the Big Bad Wolf, a topical narrative twist and a lot of playful satire, this hilarious picture book is the perfect introduction to how elections work for young readers aged 4-8.

It's election time at the farm and this year the new guy – George Wolf – is everyone's favorite. Mr Wolf is charming, likeable and very funny. But when he's elected, sheep start to go missing and George Wolf's team look very suspicious ...

Vote Wolf is a witty picture book that introduces politics and the unreliability of the media to young readers aged 4-8. Little ones will recognize familiar fairytale characters, while the storyline parodying Animal Farm will keep the grown-ups entertained too.

A perfect
(and hilarious!)
introduction to the election process for young readers!

This Book Is About Nothing

By Marco Anderson

Illustrated by Erica Salcedo

A hilarious and colorful picture book debut about an introverted child's unique journey to making new friends.

This book is about NOTHING! Zilch, zero, absolutely nothing. Rio is adamant that their story will be peaceful and uninterrupted. The only thing is ... more and more characters want to come into the book, leading to, of course, chaos! From dragons with magician's hats to unicorns who can play the piano, this hilarious story has an important post-pandemic social message of making friends as an introvert and having fun with others.

This Book is About Nothing is written by 12-year-old debut author Marco Anderson, who dreamt up a book that turned from nothing into everything. Erica Salcedo's vibrant illustrations mimic this experience, starting very minimalistic and simple and turning into visual chaos on the page.

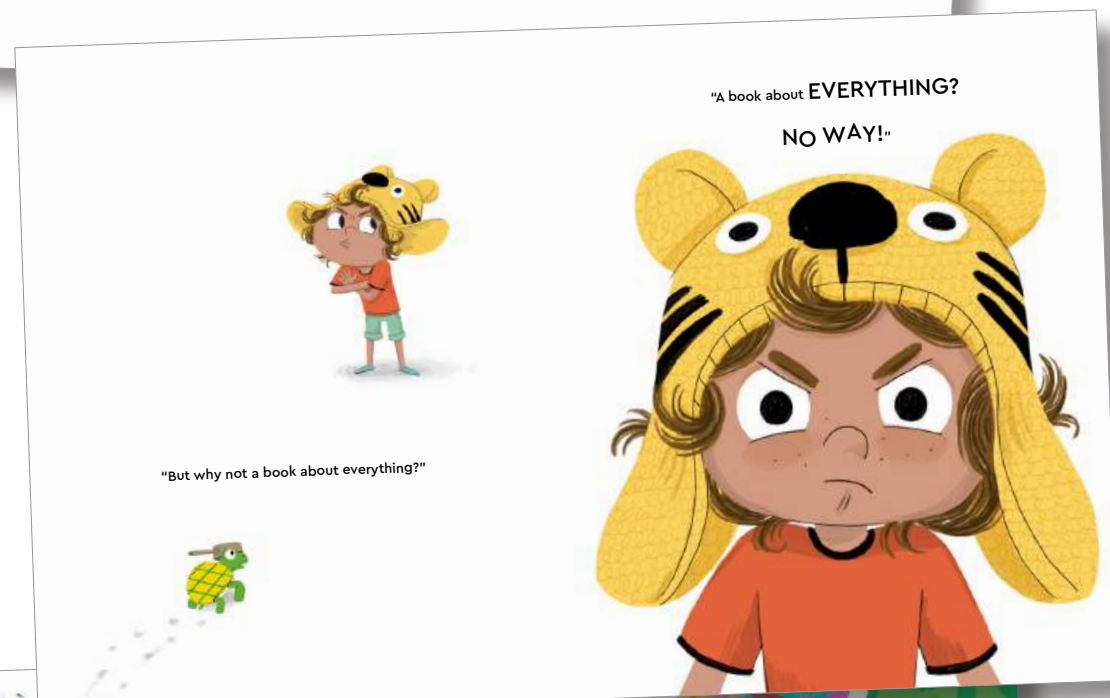

"I wrote this coming out of the pandemic. It captured the feeling we all experienced that life is more fun when you can share it with others."

– Marco Anderson

"This is not good. This is not right."

"HEY, get out of my book!"

"A book about EVERYTHING?"

NO WAY!"

"But why not a book about everything?"

"Through quiet moments and boundless imagination, this book helps children find strength within when the world feels uncertain."

- Erica Salcedo
